Entries sought for Subsistence Student Art Contest

The Federal Subsistence Management Program is sponsoring its annual art contest for all students in Alaska grades K-12. Deadline for submission is February 2, 2015. This year, the theme for the art contest is fish and shellfish. The winner's artwork will be published on the cover of the Subsistence Management Regulations for the Harvest of Fish and Shellfish on Federal Public Lands and Waters in Alaska book. The art contest offers an exciting opportunity for young individuals to express their talent and creativity while supporting the value of subsistence in their lives. The books are distributed statewide.

Each entry must be 8.5 by 11 inches and must have a fish and/or shellfish theme. All artwork must be original. Entries should be submitted to Office of Subsistence Management, Attn: Deborah Coble, 1011 E. Tudor Rd., Anchorage, Alaska 99503 and postmarked by February 2, 2015.

The official rules and entry forms are available by contacting Office of Subsistence Management both by phone (800) 478-1456 and by email at subsistence@fws.gov or by visiting www.doi.gov/subsistence/news/general/nr12-16-14.cfm.

Student artwork will be retained for use in brochures, regulation books and other publications produced by the Office of Subsistence Management.
